

There are 9 groups of branches spaced at 44 cm intervals from the starting line. Number 1 is the first group after the starting line, then 2, 3 etc. The branches of pinewood are 50 cm long and machine rounded to a diameter of 30 mm. The stems of spruce are 6 m long machine rounded and have a diameter of 140 mm.

